“Networking practices and specificity of ecomuseums and community museums”

PLENARY SESSION open to all participants to the Conference interested in New Museology and Community Museology

This session aims at confronting present networking and cooperation practices at regional, national and international levels, in order to demonstrate the unity of the ecomuseum movement and its specificity: management of global heritage and landscape of territories, community participation, interdisciplinarity, contribution to local development, collaboration with museums, monuments and sites, and scientific institutions.

The latter point will be discussed particularly with representatives of national and international organizations, natural partners of the ecomuseum movement.

Introduction to the theme and explanation of the working method
Hugues de Varine, Donatella Murtas

Presentation of contributions

Each contributor is invited to present in a few words his/her network and future perspectives, the relations to the world of museums, heritage and landscape. All documents sent in advance or brought to the Forum by the contributors to this session will be summarized on the screen in English and Italian. They will be later published in extenso among the papers of the Forum.

- the “Manifesto” and the Italian ecomuseums networks
- FEMS (France), ABREMC (Brazil), JECOMS (Japan), MINOM (Portugal), Korea, China ...
- EU-LAC Programme
- Indigenous museology of the Americas

Interventions of partners

How ecomuseums relate to their institutional partners and how do the latter relate to the ecomuseums ? Can we improve this situation ? The speakers will present their interventions with a summary in English and Italian on the screen.

- the world of heritage in situ: ICOMOS
- the museum world: ICOFOM, ICME, Italian committee of ICOM
- the academic world: SIMBDEA
- the world of responsible tourism: AITR, ICEI
